The 28th Annual Symposium on Nonhuman Primate Models for AIDS is being hosted by the Tulane National Primate Research Center and will be held at the Westin New Orleans Canal Place in New Orleans from October 19-22, 2010. Along the mighty Mississippi River and adjacent to the historical French Quarter, The Westin New Orleans Canal Place is the perfect address to savor the Crescent City's zest for living. Just steps from fine dining, Harrah's Casino, upscale shopping, museums, art galleries, and the central business district, you will enjoy comfort and service that will make you feel right at home.

Westin New Orleans Canal Place

This annual symposium is the leading forum for the exchange of the latest developments in AIDS research using nonhuman primates. The keynote address will be given by 2008 Nobel Laureate, Dr. Françoise Barré-Sinoussi and the symposium will include a reception and banquet at the Audubon Aquarium of the Americas along the Mississippi River with local "New Orleans" style entertainment.

The symposium will consist of five sessions focusing on nonhuman primate research utilizing SIV, HIV and other primate lentiviruses. The Co-Chairs of the symposium are Ronald S. Veazey, DVM, PhD and Preston A. Marx, Jr., PhD. The scientific sessions include Prevention - Vaccines and Microbicides Chaired by Richard Koup, MD and Preston A. Marx,

Jr., PhD; Virology and Pathogenesis Chaired by James A. Hoxie, MD and Cristian Apetrei, MD, PhD; Immunology and Host Defense Chaired by Louis J. Picker, MD and Marcelo J. Kuroda, MD, PhD; Therapy, Viral Persistence and Reservoirs Chaired by Robert F. Siliciano, MD, PhD and Ronald S. Veazey, DVM, PhD and Genetics and Genomics, Chaired by Ronald E. Bontrop, PhD and Deepak Kaushal, PhD.

We hope you will be able to join us in New Orleans for next year's symposium.
